

YOGA within

STUDENT-CENTERED
IYENGAR-BASED
HATHA
YOGA

Anne L. Curtis, Ph.D, E-RYT

These Level I/II small group classes are both rigorous and nurturing. The intimate size – 8 to 15 participants – enables Anne to give each student individual attention and care. Beginners welcome!

SPRING CLASS SCHEDULE – APRIL 7 TO JUNE 16, 2014

Monday mornings	9 – 10:30 am	The Loft, 5 Frost Street, Porter Square, Cambridge 4/7 – 6/16/14; no class 5/26 (Memorial Day)	10/classes/$150; $135 if paid by 3/15) 4 classes/$75; $20 drop-in
Wednesday mornings	9:30 – 11 am	The Arlington Center, 369 Mass Avenue, Arlington Classes ongoing	5, 10 & 15 class discount cards available; $18 drop-in
Wednesday evenings	5:45 – 7 pm	The Arlington Center, 369 Mass Avenue, Arlington Classes ongoing	5, 10 & 15 class discount cards available; $17 drop-in
Friday evenings	5:30 – 7 pm	The Arlington Center, 369 Mass Avenue, Arlington Classes ongoing	5, 10 & 15 class discount cards $18 drop-in

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS (SEE WEBSITE FOR DETAILS)

Sunday, March 30, 1–5: The Art of Teaching: The Twist, co-taught with Karin Stephan @ The Loft, Cambridge, MA

Anne Curtis studied classical ballet and modern dance for 14 years in Berkeley, California. After her undergraduate studies, she earned a Ph.D. in biology at MIT in Cambridge, Massachusetts. In 1996 Anne started studying Yoga and began to devote herself to Yoga as a way of life after using it to heal from an upper back injury. She founded Yoga Within in 2010.

In 2003 Anne did her Iyengar-based teacher training studies in Palo Alto, California with Larry Hatlett. She then completed the Yoga Alliance 200 hour certification with Val Spies, founder/director of The Lotus Pond in Tampa, Florida. Since certification, Anne has taught more than 1,000 hours of classes and private lessons and continues her Yoga studies with Karin Stephan and other advanced Iyengar teachers.

Anne is devoted to teaching in a student-centered way, in which each student's unique characteristics are taken into account. Her goal is for each individual to find their way toward greater understanding of their own body and how to work with the Yoga poses to bring about a finely tuned mindful balance. Anne is loved by one and all for her kindness, her wonderful sense of humor, and her highly empathic nature.

For more information & directions visit www.yogawithinboston.com
email: annelcurtis@gmail.com phone: 617.710.1220