

How to attend a class or event at The Arlington Center

To Register

1. Select the offerings - classes, workshops, or other events - you'd like to attend 2. To pre-register and reserve your space in a class series or workshop, download the registration form below, fill it out, then drop off or mail with a check in the full amount, payable to The Arlington Center:

The Arlington Center, 369 Mass Ave, Arlington, MA 02474

3. To register in person, please bring payment - cash or check payable to The Arlington Center - to your first class. When you register for the remainder of a class series that's already underway, the cost is pro-rated - most 90 min classes are $14/class, and hour-long classes $13 or less

- Class series, workshops and other events are filled first come, first served in order of payment
- There is no preregistration for free events, or for events with admission at the door, except as noted
- A confirmation will be sent out only if an email address is included with your registration
- Please pay by check payable to The Arlington Center, indicating the class, day, and time of the event on the check
- The Center can also accept cash when payment is made in person
- The Center does not accept credit card payment or online registration
